QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Twenty years from now, you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did, so throw off the bowlines, sail away from safe harbor, and catch the trade winds in your sails.
Explore, Dream, Discover. –Mark Twain

SAT WORD OF THE WEEK

Clout

n. special advantage or power.

Children of rich and famous people often believe they have a lot of clout.

TODAY IN HISTORY

In 1781, British forces under General Charles Cornwallis signed terms of surrender to George Washington and Comte de Rochambeau at Yorktown at 2 p.m., ending the US Revolutionary War.

In 1943, Streptomycin, the first antibiotic remedy for tuberculosis, was isolated by researchers at Rutgers University in Piscataway, New Jersey.

In 1987, Black Monday, Stock markets worldwide crashed, including the Dow Jones stock index, which fell 508.32 points (22%), 4½ times the previous daily record.
