RED RIBBON WEEK

Enrique "Kiki" Camarena was a 37-year-old DEA agent working in Mexico in 1985. While close to exposing a massive drug operation, he was kidnapped, tortured, and killed by the Mexican Cartel on February 7, 1985. In his honor, people in his hometown began wearing red ribbons and pledged to live drug-free. This started Red Ribbon Week, now a national event held every year from October 23-31, to raise awareness about the dangers of drugs and promote a healthy, drug-free lifestyle.

Wear red one day this week to show your commitment to a drug-free life! ❤️
