TODAY IN HISTORY

Today in history, on December 19, 1777, George Washington led the Continental Army into winter quarters at Valley Forge, enduring harsh conditions but emerging stronger. In 1843, Charles Dickens's A Christmas Carol was published, spreading the timeless tale of redemption and generosity. And in 1998, the U.S. House of Representatives impeached President Bill Clinton, marking a pivotal moment in American politics.
