SAT Word of the Week

Kerfuffle

Noun. A commotion or fuss, often caused by conflicting views.

There was quite a kerfuffle in the cafeteria when the last slice of pizza disappeared!

TODAY IN HISTORY

On May 13, 1846, the United States Congress declared war on Mexico, initiating the Mexican-American War, which led to significant territorial changes in North America. In 1940, Winston Churchill delivered his first speech as British Prime Minister to the House of Commons, famously stating, "I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears, and sweat," rallying the nation during World War II. On this day in 1981, Pope John Paul II survived an assassination attempt in St. Peter's Square, Vatican City, when he was shot and critically wounded but later made a full recovery.
